During 1949, Government lands bearing Sy.Nos.1/4, 1/3 and 2/3 of an aggregate area of 8-00 acres in Hoskote Village, Ammathi Nad were granted to exservice man, Nellamakkala M. Muthanna, under the scheme for the Resettlement of Ex-servicemen on land in Coorg, The grantee has cultivated the land and has settled on it.

3. It was accordingly proposed to disafforest Sy.No.2/3 of 4-25 acres and afforest equal area of land from paisari land Sy.No.1/1 which is adjacent to the Devaracadu as the grantee has cultivated the land and has settled down there. The Forest Department has been consulted in the matter and they have no objection to the proposed conversion.

Subject:- Conversion of Devaracadu S.No. 2/3 (4-25 acres) of Hosakote village into paisari and paisari S.No.1/6(4-25 acres) of the same village into Devaracadu.

Reference:- Your letter No.A5.Cg.1693/57-58 dated 28.11.57.

The land in question is seen to be protected forest' given for the use of the temple "Ayyappa Devaru". The temple probably is not entitled to any income therefrom. At best it seems to be reserved for some religious functions connected with the temple.

As such the afforestation of an extent 4-25 acres of paisari land in lieu of the 4-25 acres of Devaracadu already taken up for cultivation may be considered. I have no objection for the publication of the draft notification as desired by the Deputy Commissioner, Coorg District. The connected records accompany.
